OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM SOS-HGIC

RE: UNAUTHORIZED USE OF SOS-HGIC'S IDENTITY

It has come to the attention of SOS-HGIC that an alumnus of the college has created a website and a LinkedIn page using our College's name, images, and other protected materials, without our knowledge, consent, or authorization.

We wish to make it unequivocally clear:

- This individual is not affiliated with SOS-HGIC in any official or authorized capacity.
- We have not granted permission for the use of our College's name, logo, photos, or any other intellectual property on their website, LinkedIn page, or any other platform.
- We do not approve, condone, or endorse any statements, services, products, or activities presented on those pages.
- The College fully disassociates itself from this individual and any actions or communications carried out under our name without authorization.

To the best of our knowledge, this individual is operating entirely independently, without our permission. Any views or activities expressed on their platforms are solely their own and do not reflect the positions or values of SOS-HGIC.

We are taking appropriate steps to address this matter and protect our College's name and reputation. We encourage anyone who encounters these unauthorized pages to exercise caution and to rely only on official communications from SOS-HGIC through our verified channels. Please find below a link with all the links to the official school's social media platforms including the Alumni ones.

If you have any questions or believe you have been misled by this individual's unauthorized use of our College's identity, please contact us directly at secretary_to_princip@soshgic.edu.gh or +233 303 204267

Thank you for your continued trust in SOS-HGIC.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Margaret Nkrumah
(Board Chair-SOS-HGIC)

Mrs. Eliz Dadson
(Principal-SOS-HGIC)
